Saturday 16 April:

Paro Valley to Thimphu (1 hr 30 mins drive time)

Firstly, consider the early morning option to attend the festival for the unfurling of the Thongdrel. This takes place at the Rinpung Dzong at around 3.00 am. It is an intensely religious experience for the Bhutanese. The extremely large thongdrel is a painting (Thangka) which is not allowed to be struck by the direct rays of the sun. Therefore, it must be rolled back up by 7:30 AM. The mere sight of the Thongdrel is said to cleanse the viewer of sin.

After a leisurely breakfast back at your hotel, transfer to Thimphu city, Bhutan's quirky capital. Firstly, stop at the Iron Bridge and temple en-route, before arriving into the city. On arrival in Thimphu visit the celebrated Royal Textiles Academy, followed by a visit to the 'Simply Bhutan' traditional display village followed by a Bhutanese lunch. At 'Simply Bhutan' you can try ara tasting (local spirit); suja tasting (butter tea); try your hand at archery and enjoy a cultural performance of song & dance during the lunch.

Remainder of the afternoon at leisure to explore Thimphu on foot perhaps enjoy a wander along Thimphu's main street Norzin Lam and visit the craft bazaar.

Sunday 17 April:

Exploring in the Thimphu Valley

This morning visit the awesome Golden Buddha which also offers an excellent 3 km hike option with sensational valley views. Continue on to the majestic Trashichhoe Dzong and the beautiful Tara Lhaden Zhingkhams lhakhang, followed by a visit to the colourful weekend markets (Fri-Sun) where everyone goes to buy an array of fresh fruits & vegetables, home-ware, handicrafts and clothes.

After a relaxing lunch at a local Thimphu restaurant, visit the National Memorial Stupa followed by the Takin Preserve – home to Bhutan's most unusual national mammal.

Paro Festival Tour – 10 nights 14-24 APR 2022

Monday 18 April:

Thimphu to Phobjikha (4+ hrs)

This morning drive eastwards to the Phobjikha Valley. Ascend to Dochu La (pass-3116 m) to view the 108 Stupas. These were commissioned by a former Queen as a memorial to those who lost their lives during the low intensity conflict in late 2002. This is when Bhutan evicted Indian separatist rebels camped in the jungle on the Bhutan-Indian border. On a clear day you will witness a breathtaking view of the eastern Himalaya.

When the Wangdue Phodrang Dzong comes into view, notice the large cacti that cover the hillside below. These were planted long ago to discourage invaders from climbing the steep slope to the Dzong.

Phobjikha is a glacial valley on the western slopes of the Black Mountains. It is one of the most beautiful open valleys in Bhutan and, in addition, also one of the most important wildlife preserves in the country. Phobjikha is the winter home (late OCT to early FEB) of the rare black necked crane which annually flies in from Tibet. There are also barking deer, wild boar, sambar, Himalayan black bear, leopard and red fox.

While you are in Phobjikha you will visit the Black Crane nature information centre & the sacred Gangtey Goenpa (monastery). Furthermore enjoy time to wander through Gangtey village and hike the Gangtey Nature Trail. Time permitting you can take an excursion to the remote Phobji area of the valley. Here you can take an easy, flat hike through farm houses and temples.

Wednesday 20 April:

Phobjikha to Punakha Valley (2+ hrs)

Depart this morning to the Punakha valley. This holds the title as the winter capital because of its more temperate climate. Arriving into the valley firstly visit the markets at Mesina. After that we visit Chimi Lhakhang, a monastery built by Lama Drukpa Kuenley (also known as the Divine Madman), which is a pleasant 20 min walk across paddy fields. It is believed that childless women who visit the temple will conceive after receiving a “wang” (blessing) from the resident monk.

Wednesday 20 April – continued.

After lunch at a local restaurant take an excursion along a scenic country lane to the very traditional village of Talo. Here you can stroll through the beautiful & serene gardens of the local monastery. Finally, time permitting, visit the Sangchen Dorji Lhuendrup Lhakhang & Nunnery.

Overnight Punakha Valley – Bhutan Style 3* Hotel.

Thursday 21 April:

Sightseeing & hiking in Punakha

This morning visit the Punakha Saturday morning market, before a visit to the dramatic Punakha Dzong, which formally served as the seat of the government. It is still the winter residence of the Dratsheng (Central Monk Body). This is an excellent example of how a medieval fortress, and a centre of both monastic & administrative functions, has evolved for modern day use.

After lunch at a local restaurant, we hike to Khamsum Yulley Namgyel Chorten. This is a delightful hike through tiny hamlets, fields of vegetable and rice paddy. The Chorten holds very special significance being consecrated in 1999. It is dedicated to the protection of the former Crown Prince – today's current King Jigme Khesar Namgyel Wangchuck.

Paro Festival Tour – 10 nights 14-24 APR 2022

Saturday 23 April:

Taksang Monastery Hike

After early breakfast we take a 'pilgrimage' hike to the Taksang Monastery, also known as Tigers Nest. All Bhutanese Buddhists desire to make this pilgrimage at least once in their lives. As a result, each step they take along the trail counts as merit points towards their future.

Choose between a 1.5 to 2 hour round trip hike to the Monastery viewpoint or a longer 5 hour and more strenuous hike into the Monastery itself. Tigers Nest clings impossibly to a cliff of rock 800 m above the valley floor. Furthermore, this is where Guru Rinpoche flew on the back of a tigress to subdue the local demons. This was followed by 3 months meditation in a cave still visible in the monastery. In 1998 the monastery was seriously damaged by fire and has since been painstakingly reconstructed to its original condition. It was then consecrated by the 4th King in 2005.

Take lunch at the Viewpoint Cafe on the hiking trail. Head back to your hotel via the revered Kyichu Lhakhang (temple). This is one of Bhutan's oldest and most beautiful temples. Furthermore it boasts an orange tree that perpetually bears fruit. After that take the rest of the afternoon at leisure. Or consider more shopping or sightseeing in Paro town.
